

The Free State Symphony Orchestra is the only professional ad hoc orchestra based in Bloemfontein. The professional core of the orchestra consists of music teachers and free lance musicians. This is supplemented by some of the best young instrumentalists in the province. The FSSO performs symphony concerts, accompany choirs, ballet and opera productions and do outreach concerts.